PCTI Arts Students Help Promote “Greener Skies”

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) Communication Arts students recently participated in a truck design contest held by Green Sky Industries – New Jersey’s largest private recycling corporation. The company sponsored a lunch for all participating students at PCTI’s famous Culinary Arts restaurant, Chez Technique. Associates of Green Sky Industries, Kathy Arciero, Joe Mc Nellis, and Cheryl Pavliv, announced the winners. Congratulations to William Bonet and Monushra Miah! Each student received a two hundred and fifty dollar award for their winning design that will be showcased on a brand new company recycling truck.
