PCTI Dance Students Selected for Governor’s Award

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) senior, Joy Giuffre, and junior, Julia Foti, of the School of Performing Arts program have been selected to receive the Student Award for Artistic Excellence in Dance – one of the Governor’s Awards for outstanding achievements in the arts. Applicants were rated based on the strength of the technical skill/artistic merit, leadership, answers to essay questions, GPA, recommendation letters, and their resumes.

The committee reviewed many talented dancers from across New Jersey who demonstrated both technical and artistic excellence in their field. Joy and Julia will receive their honors at the Governor’s Arts Awards Ceremony on Wednesday May 26th in Trenton.

Passaic County Technical Institute students Joy Giuffre (Wayne) and Julia Foti (North Haledon) have been selected to receive the Governor's Award for Artistic Excellence in Dance.
