willPower for girlPower Rejoices in Community Service

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – On Wednesday December 2nd, Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) willPower for girlPower delivered items donated from the school’s Winter Warmth Drive to Eva’s Village. The drive list was given to School of Communication Arts Instructor Tracy Vicente by Volunteer Coordinator Elizabeth Mathews. Requests included hats, gloves, scarves, socks, and personal hygiene items in lieu of the winter season.

After touring the start of the art dental and medical facilities, as well as the Women’s Crisis Shelter child tutoring/recovery programs of Eva’s Village, PCTI students and Mrs. Vicente volunteered in the soup kitchen to serve hot coffee and meals to the grateful men and women of Paterson. Eva’s Village Coordinator, Elizabeth Mathews, extended her deepest thanks for PCTI’s overwhelming generosity as donations just in time for the holiday season.

PCTI willPower for Girlpower students Jannat Begum (Paterson), Jaslyn Mosquera (Clifton), Indira Estevez (Paterson), Daritza Munoz (Clifton), Instructor/Advisor Tracy Vicente (Bloomingdale), Melissa Villafana (Clifton), Maria DeLaCruz (Paterson), and Masuma Begum (Paterson) volunteer at Eva's Village in the soup kitchen.
